

Save the date: 7th March, 2024 at Grand Hotel in Odense

DANISH INTERNATIONAL SCHOOLS NETWORK:
PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT FOR TEACHERS, LEADERS, LEARNING SUPPORT AND COUNCILLORS

Relational Competence:
How to Support Student Wellbeing and Development Through Daily Teacher-Student-Interactions

Louise Klinge is a child and school researcher and author of a number of books. In 2017, she won the Ph.d.-Cup for her presentation on professional relational competence. Originally, she has a master's degree in Danish and Philosophy and she worked for a number of years as a teacher. Today, she communicates her research to practitioners and decision-makers in the field of education. She sits on the Children's Council, is part of Tech & Trivsel and NOISE, and she is the leader of Eduk - read more at eduk.dk

Programme for the Day:

- | | |
|-------------|--|
| 09.00 | Arrival, registration, tea/coffee and mini breakfast |
| 09.30 | Louise Klinge Session 1: teacher-student relationship and characteristics of teachers' relational competence |
| 12.00 | Lunch |
| 13.00 | Louise Klinge Session 2: structural and individual preconditions for relational competence. Key concepts: 'attuners', 'caring ethics', 'basic psychological needs' |
| 15.00 | Networking, tea/coffee/fruit/cake |
| 15.30-16.00 | Reflections and evaluation of the day. Goodbyes |

Please sign up via this link <https://www.conferencemanager.dk/dismarch24>.

Deadline for sign-up: 23rd February.

Cost: 900 DKK per person for DISN member schools, 1200 DKK per person for non DISN member schools.

Venue Details: First Grand Hotel, Jernbanegade 18, 5000 Odense C